

IRSA Ten Rater Class and IRSA Marblehead Class

World Championships Proposal West Kirby, UK

9th - 19th June 2020

West Kirby Marine Lake is regarded by sailors worldwide as one of not only the UK's, but also the World's premier venues for Radio Sailing.

This open aspect venue offers a full range of racing conditions to challenge the best in design and skipper qualities.

West Kirby Sailing Club is located in the North West of the UK, on the Wirral peninsula in Merseyside.

The venue is situated only 12 miles from the city of Liverpool and 50 miles from Manchester International Airport, providing good accessibility for travelling competitors.

Sweeping views of Wales across the Dee estuary and easy access to one of the UK's vibrant historical waterfront cities in Liverpool, makes the Wirral peninsula and the wider North West more than just a sailing experience.

West Kirby Sailing Club has hosted numerous Radio Sailing events including:

IOM World Championships 2011

IOM National Championships in 2006, 2010 and 2016

Ten Rater National Championships in 2015 and many National Ranking and Open events for the Marblehead, IOM and A Classes.
